Media Release Central Missouri Tactical Officer's Association

Incident: Regional Training
Location: Kemper Military Academy (Boonville)
Date & time: 09-17-08 and 09-18-08 0900-1700 hours

The Special Weapons and Tactics Teams (SWAT) from the City of Boonville, Jefferson City, the City of Columbia, the City of Rolla, Boone County, Cole County, Morgan County, Pulaski County, Camden County, Dallas County, the Missouri State Highway Patrol, the Missouri State Water Patrol, and the Federal Bureau of Investigation have joined together, in cooperation with the Missouri Police Chief's Association, to form the Central Missouri Tactical Officer's Association. The purpose of this group is to share knowledge, experiences and resources to better serve our individual communities and the citizens of Mid-Missouri as a whole.

In support of our stated mission, we are currently conducting our Second Annual Regional Training. The Association would like to invite local media representatives to attend any portion of next two days of training at the former Kemper Military Academy in Boonville.

September 17th will have a "round-robin" format covering the topics of Downed Officer/Citizen Rescue, Open Field and Woodland Movement, Aircraft Assaults, and Vehicle Assaults.

September 18th will be centered around a large scenario, broken up into four missions, which will require the use of skills reviewed/taught the previous day.
