Details:

On 02/26/09 at approximately 0915 hours Columbia Police Department officers apprehended a burglary suspect in the 5000 block of Commercial Drive. During the ensuing investigation, information was obtained leading authorities to believe the suspect, 21 year old Columbia resident John Jattros Stull, had committed other burglaries and larcenies.

At approximately 1600 hours Boone County Sheriff's Deputies received word about the multiple county locations where the suspect is believed to have entered and stolen property. Deputies have identified property from the burglaries and larcenies and returned several items to the rightful owners.

Stull is being charged with a total of two counts of Burglary 1st degree; two counts of Felony Stealing; and two counts of Misdemeanor Stealing. Stull's bond has been set by a judge at $60,000.00 total for all cases and charges.
