Boone County sheriff's deputies are looking for a suspect in a burglary this afternoon (8/13/09) in the 7800 block of East Richland Road that was interrupted by the homeowner's cleaning woman.

Officers responded to the home at about 1230 hours and were told by the 21-year-old woman the burglar fled from the rear of the house after she confronted him in a utility room. A sheriff's department canine unit responded to the scene and tracked a scent southwest of the residence to near the intersection of East Richland Road and Trade Winds Parkway where officers recovered five long guns in a canvas bag believed to have been taken from the home.
