Media Release

Type of Incident: Single Vehicle Crash - Trafficking Drugs - DWI

Incident Occurred: 5100 block Creasy Springs Road

Date & Time: 11/19/2009 @ 8:41 p.m.

Case Number: 2009-6849

Details of the Incident:

On 11/17/2009, Deputies with the Boone County Sheriff's Department were dispatched to a single vehicle crash in the 5100 block of Creasy Springs Road. Deputies arrived to find one SUV off the east side of the roadway. It was determined that the SUV was northbound on Creasy Springs when it failed to negotiate a curve. The vehicle drove off the roadway and struck a sign, a parked vehicle and then a tree.

At the scene, Deputies contacted the driver, Marco D. Campbell. Campbell is a 25 year old resident of Columbia. Property recovered at the scene belonging to Campbell contained crack cocaine and marijuana. Campbell was taken to the University of Missouri Hospital for evaluation and released.

Campbell was transported to the jail and processed for the following violations:

- Trafficking in Drugs, 2nd degree,
- Possession of Marijuana, under 35 grams,
- Driving While Intoxicated – Drugs – prior offender
- Driving While Revoked
- Careless and Imprudent Driving

Trafficking (2nd degree) is a class A felony. Thus, the bond must be set by a judge. At the time of this release, Campbell's bond was not set. The bond for the remaining charges totaled $1,500.00.
