Media Release

Incident: Larcenies from Vehicles
Location: Harrisburg Area
Date & time: 7/16/11 @ 2300 to 7/17/11 @ 0100
Case Number: 11-4634

Details:

A Hallsville woman was arrested today (7/18/11) by sheriff's deputies on suspicion of being involved in a number of larcenies from vehicles on Highway 124 West in the Harrisburg area late Saturday night.

A stolen cell phone was used by the suspects to take pictures that were automatically sent to the victim's Facebook account. Using that information, deputies arrested Nina Hoskins, 25, of 6199 Brooke Drive. Hoskins was already being held in the Boone County Jail on unrelated receiving stolen property and felony stealing charges stemming from her arrest by Columbia Police early Sunday morning.

The sheriff's department received six calls Sunday morning about a GPS device, loose change, a wallet and a cell phone taken from vehicles parked between the 2800 and 4000 block of Highway 124 West.

Hoskins is now facing an additional felony charge of suspicion of receiving stolen property and remains in custody on a total of $18,000 bond.
