Case Number:            12-2030

Details:

A domestic dispute escalated into gunfire this afternoon (4/20/12) at a convenience store east of Columbia.

Deputies and Columbia Police responded to the Kwik Store/BP Station at 5701 E. St. Charles Road at about 12:49 p.m. for a report of shots fired. Witnesses told deputies and officers a man and a woman were arguing on the parking lot when at least one shot was fired from a brown Chevrolet Tahoe sport utility vehicle.

A semi-automatic pistol believed involved the shooting was recovered in a woman's purse near Boone County Fire Protection District Station 1 on E. St. Charles Road. A 24-year-old man believed involved in the domestic dispute was released after being interviewed by detectives. No one has been arrested or charged at this time and there have been no reports of injuries.
