Incident: UPDATE: 2ND SUSPECT ARRESTED IN HOME INVASION
Location: 1000 block of North Kathryn (Phenora Oaks)
Date & time: 6/24/12 @ 2332 hours
Case Number: 12-3334

Details:

A second suspect was arrested yesterday evening (6/26/12) in connection with a home invasion and robbery last weekend at an apartment in the 1000 block of North Kathryn Drive in Phenora Oaks near the intersection of Highway VV and Highway 763.

Felson D. Barney, 36, of 905 Clayton Avenue, (pictured below) is being held without bond in the Boone County Jail on suspicion of First Degree Robbery, Armed Criminal Action, Unlawful Use of a Weapon and Parole Violation. Columbia Police officers located Barney at a residence in the 1000 block of North Garth Avenue shortly before 7 p.m. and took him into custody after a brief foot chase.

Last Sunday evening sheriff's deputies were in the Phenora Oaks area when a citizen reported a disturbance at an apartment building on North Kathryn Drive. Upon arrival the victims, a man, 31, and a woman, 35, told deputies three men burst into the residence demanding money and drugs. The trio fled with two cellphones and cash when deputies arrived on the scene.

Joshua J. Wisham, 19, of 509 Brewer Drive, was taken into custody after a short pursuit by a K-9 Unit near the intersection of Highway VV and Farrar Drive. Wisham is being held in the Boone County Jail on of First Degree Robbery. His bond has been set at $40,000.

Deputies also located a loaded semi-automatic pistol left at the scene by one of the suspects. Detectives are still seeking a third suspect, described as a black male in his late teens or early twenties.
