Details:

A man jailed on assault charges by Columbia Police in connection with a shooting has been linked to a burglary on Old Ridge Road yesterday (10/17/12) where two maids reported an armed gunman forced his way into the residence demanding cash and other valuables.

Justin R. Campbell, 29, of Columbia, is in the Boone County Jail awaiting bond to be set on assault and weapons charges relating to a shooting investigated by the Columbia Police. Campbell was taken into custody last night in Fulton and returned to Boone County.

Sheriff's deputies responded to the 3000 block of Old Ridge Road shortly after 1 p.m. and were told by one of the maids a man knocked on the door saying he needed water for the radiator in his disabled car. The suspect, armed with a pistol, forced his way into the residence after the woman returned to the front door with the water.

The suspect bound both women with ligatures before fleeing with a small amount of cash, a laptop computer and an I-PAD. There were no injuries to the victims and the investigation is continuing.
