Incident: Drug Offense; Resisting Arrest; P&P Violation
Location: Brushwood Lake Road & Scott Blvd.
Date & time: 2/24/16 @ 0205 hours
Case Number: 16-1024

Details:

A St. Louis area man is being held without bond in the Boone County Jail after leading sheriff's deputies on a vehicle pursuit before crashing into a tree on Brushwood Lake Road early this morning (2/24/16).

David Andrew Davis, 27, who gave an address in Maryland Heights, Mo., was arrested on suspicion of Possession of a Controlled Substance, Felony Resisting Arrest, Tampering with Physical Evidence, Careless and Imprudent Driving and on a Probation and Parole Violation.

A deputy attempted to make a traffic stop on a silver Ford Fusion Davis was driving shortly after 2 a.m. on Brushwood Lake Road near Scott Boulevard. The driver accelerated to speeds of approximately 70 miles per hour before losing control several minutes later and crashing into a tree near Howard Orchard Road. The suspect ran from the vehicle but was taken into custody after a brief foot pursuit.

After his capture the suspect attempted to swallow a plastic bag containing a white powder substance which tested positive for cocaine. Davis is currently on probation for a previous drug conviction.

There were no injuries to deputies or the suspect in this incident.
