Details:

A 43-year-old Boone County Jail inmate being held on suspicion of robbing two women at knifepoint near a Columbia church last October is facing additional charges for assaulting several corrections officers last night (5/23/16), one of whom was taken to a local hospital emergency room for treatment.

Glen Earl Lewis, 43, of 2712-A Mulberry Drive, was causing a disturbance in his cell shortly before 8 p.m. Lewis was non-compliant with requests from corrections officers and fought with them as they attempted to remove him from his cell.

Lewis, who is listed as 6-feet-tall and weighing 250 pounds, punched several officers and spit on another. Lewis is also suspected of striking a 31-year-old female corrections officer with a heavy plastic food tray causing a laceration to her head and breaking several facial bones. The officer was released last night from the hospital.

Lewis was arrested on suspicion of Endangering a Corrections Employee, Assault 1st Degree and Armed Criminal Action. Total bond on these new charges have not yet been set by a judge. Lewis' previous bond amount was set at $1,100,000.
