Media Release

Incident: Two Arrested On Suspicion Of Drug, Firearms Violations
Location: Route Z & E. Mexico Gravel Road
Date & time: 9/1/17 @ 0002 hours
Case Number: 17-3975

Details:

A man and a woman were arrested early this morning (9/1/17) after a traffic stop east of Columbia by Boone County sheriff's deputies netted methamphetamine, drug paraphernalia and a pistol reported stolen from Jefferson City.

Donald C. Rybolt, 63, of Columbia and Terry J. Ricketts, 53, of Fulton are being held in the Boone County Detention Center each on $20,500 bond. Both face charges of Distribution of a Controlled Substance, Possession of a Firearm Unlawful for Certain Persons, Possession of a Controlled Substance; Stealing and Unlawful Possession of Drug Paraphernalia.

Shortly after midnight deputies stopped a gray Chevrolet van driven by Rybolt on Route Z near East Mexico Gravel Road because it lacked operable tail lights and its license plates checked to another vehicle. Methamphetamine, drug paraphernalia and the stolen handgun were found after a search of the van. Ricketts was a passenger in the van and in close proximity to the illegal items. Both Rybolt and Ricketts are convicted felons.
